I'm going to write about my best day at school.
 I went to school called Numançã. Several members of my family were students of this school like my parents, my sister, my aunt, several uncles and my grandmother too. My best day at school was a day in May in 1988. I had an exam of math. My favourite subject was math. The teacher was Elena. She loved teaching. Nowadays she doesn't work yet. That day I didn't study anything because I was been ill. When I finished doing an exam I thought: "I think I've done the exam well". Next week the teacher had the notes. I had the best result of the class. It made me feel very happy.
