

Task 1

Write a blog entry describing something that happened in your past. Either write about a strange or unusual event from your past or a special day that you still remember clearly. The text must be between 150-180 words. Organize it in different paragraphs:

Set the scene and describe the situation (When was it? Where was it?), describe the events of the story (What happened?, What did you do?, How did you feel?) and how the story ends, what happens to the characters.)

(Marking: 10 points)

When I was 9 I travelled with my ~~parent~~ grandparents and my brother, who was 10, to Benidorm. It was a very nice trip, I can remember it very clearly and I have a good memory from that.

The beginning was the worst part. To start with, we got there by bus from Asturias and it took too long to arrive. I felt dizzy and I vomited all the way long, but when we arrived to the hotel everything changed: nice rooms, swimming pool, wonderful beaches around...

I was just a child and it was the first time I hearded people talking in other languages or saw women doing top-less on the beach, everything was different. My brother and I had a really good time because my grandparents bought everything we wanted, like candies, toys, t-shirts...

Also there were different shows at the swimming pool area of the hotel every night and we enjoyed very much watching them: singers, dancers, magicians, comedians...

Now my grandparents are dead and this is the most living memory I have from them.
